FINDINGS OF FACT AND RECOMMENDATION ON GUILTY PLEA
BEFORE THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

By order of the District Court, this matter is referred to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge for administration of the guilty plea under Rule 11. Magistrate judges have the statutory authority to conduct a felony guilty plea proceeding as an “additional duty” pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3). United States v. On March 8, 2022, this case came before the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge for entry of a guilty plea by Defendant, Anthony Antorn Sims, to Counts One and Two of the Indictment. Count One of the Indictment alleges that from sometime in or about January 2019, and continuously thereafter up to and including November 12, 2020, in the Eastern District of Texas and elsewhere, Defendant Anthony Antorn Sims and others did knowingly and intentionally combine, conspire, and agree with each other and other persons, known and unknown to the United States Grand Jury, to knowingly and intentionally possess with the intent to distribute 5 kilograms or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine, a violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1), all in violation of Title 21 U.S.C. 846 – Conspiracy to Possess with the Intent to Distribute Cocaine. Count Two of the Indictment alleges that from sometime in or about January 2019, and continuously thereafter up to and including November 12, 2020, Defendant Anthony Antorn Sims and others knowingly combined, conspired, and agreed together and with each other and with other persons, known and unknown, to conduct financial transactions affecting interstate commerce which involved the proceeds of specified unlawful activity, that is, conspiracy to distribute and possess with intent to distribute cocaine, as alleged in Count One of the Indictment;

1. knowing that the transactions were designed in whole and in part to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership and control of the proceeds of that specified unlawful activity contrary to 18 U.S.C. § 1956(a)(B)(i).

2. to knowingly transport, transmit, or transfer, or attempt to transport, transmit, or transfer a monetary instrument or funds from a place in the United States to or through a place outside the United States, or to a place in the United States from or through a place outside the United States, with intent to promote the carrying on of specified unlawful activity, that is, Conspiracy to Possess with the Intent to Distribute a Controlled Substance, to-wit: cocaine, as described in Count One of the Indictment, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1956(a)(2)(A); and

3. to knowingly transport, transmit, or transfer, or attempt to transport, transmit, or transfer a monetary instrument or funds from a place in the United States to or through a place outside the United States, or to a place in the United States from or through a place outside the United States, involving the proceeds of a specified unlawful activity, that is, Conspiracy to Possess with the Intent to Distribute a Controlled Substances, to-wit: cocaine, as described in Count One of the Indictment, knowing that the monetary instrument or funds involved in the transportation, transmission, or transfer represented the proceeds of some form of unlawful activity and knowing that such transportation, transmission, or transfer was designed in whole or in part to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, and control of the proceeds of the specified unlawful activity, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1956(a)(2)(B)(i), all in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 1956(h), 1956(a)(2)(A), and 1956(a)(2)(B)(i) – Conspiracy to Commit Money Laundering.

Defendant entered a plea of guilty to Counts One and Two of the Indictment into the record at the hearing. After conducting the proceeding in the form and manner prescribed by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the undersigned finds:

a. Defendant, after consultation with his attorney, has knowingly, freely, and voluntarily consented to the administration of the guilty plea in this case by a United States Magistrate Judge in the Eastern District of Texas subject to a final approval and imposition of sentence by the District Court;

b. Defendant and the Government have entered into a plea agreement which was disclosed and addressed in open court, entered into the record, and placed under seal. Defendant verified that he understood the terms of the plea agreement and acknowledged that it was his signature on the plea agreement. To the extent the plea agreement contains recommendations and requests pursuant to FED. R. CRIM. P. 11 (c)(1)(B), the Court advises Defendant that he has no right to withdraw the plea if the Court does not follow the particular recommendations or requests. To the extent that any or all of the terms of the plea agreement are pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) or (C), the undersigned advises Defendant that he will have the opportunity to withdraw his plea of guilty should the Court not follow those particular terms of the plea agreement;¹

(A) To the extent the plea agreement is of the type specified in Rule 11(c)(1)(A) or (C), the court may accept the agreement, reject it, or defer a decision until the court has reviewed the presentence report.

(B) To the extent the plea agreement is of the type specified in Rule 11(c)(1)(B), the court must advise the defendant that the defendant has no right to withdraw the plea if the court does not follow the recommendation or request.

(4) Accepting a Plea Agreement. If the court accepts the plea agreement, it must inform the defendant that to the extent the plea agreement is of the type specified in Rule 11(c)(1)(A) or (C), the agreed disposition will be included in the judgment.

c. Defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea, Defendant is aware of the nature of the charges and the consequences of the plea, and the plea of guilty is made freely, knowingly, and voluntarily. Upon addressing Defendant personally in open court, the undersigned determines that Defendant's plea is knowing and voluntary and did not result from force, threats, or promises (other than the promises set forth in the plea agreement). See FED. R. CRIM. P. 11(b)(2); and

d. Defendant's knowing and voluntary plea is supported by an independent factual basis establishing each of the essential elements of the offenses, and Defendant realizes that his conduct falls within the definitions of the crimes charged under Title 21 U.S.C. 846 – Conspiracy to Possess with the Intent to Distribute Cocaine and Title 18 U.S.C. § 1956(h), 1956(a)(2)(A), and 1956(a)(2)(B)(i) – Conspiracy to Commit Money Laundering.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

As factual support for Defendant's guilty plea, the Government presented a factual basis. See Factual Basis. In support, the Government would prove that Defendant is one and the same person charged in the Indictment and that the events described in the Indictment occurred in the Eastern District of Texas and elsewhere. The Government would also have proven, beyond a reasonable doubt, each and every essential element of the offenses as alleged in Counts One and Two of the Indictment through the testimony of witnesses, including expert witnesses, and admissible exhibits. In support of Defendant's plea, the undersigned incorporates the proffer of

(5) Rejecting a Plea Agreement. If the court rejects a plea agreement containing provisions of the type specified in Rule 11(c)(1)(A) or (C), the court must do the following on the record and in open court (or, for good cause, in camera):

(A) inform the parties that the court rejects the plea agreement;

(B) advise the defendant personally that the court is not required to follow the plea agreement and give the defendant an opportunity to withdraw the plea; and evidence described in detail in the factual basis and stipulation, filed in support of the plea agreement.

(C) advise the defendant personally that if the plea is not withdrawn, the court may dispose of the case less favorably toward the defendant than the plea agreement contemplated. FED. R. CRIM. P. 11(c)(3)-(5).

Defendant, Anthony Antorn Sims, agreed with and stipulated to the evidence presented in the factual basis. Counsel for Defendant attested to Defendant's competency and capability to enter an informed plea of guilty. Defendant agreed with the evidence presented by the Government and personally testified that he was entering his guilty plea knowingly, freely, and voluntarily.

RECOMMENDED DISPOSITION

IT IS THEREFORE the recommendation of the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge that the District Court accept the Guilty Plea of Defendant, which the undersigned determines to be supported by an independent factual basis establishing each of the essential elements of the offenses charged in Counts One and Two of the Indictment. It is also recommended that the District Court defer acceptance of the plea agreement until after review of the presentence report. Accordingly, it is further recommended that Anthony Antorn Sims be finally adjudged guilty of the charged offenses in violation of Title 21 U.S.C. 846 – Conspiracy to Possess with the Intent to Distribute Cocaine and Title 18 U.S.C. § 1956(h), 1956(a)(2)(A), and 1956(a)(2)(B)(i) – Conspiracy to Commit Money Laundering.

If the plea agreement is rejected and Defendant still persists in the guilty plea, the disposition of the case may be less favorable to Defendant than that contemplated by the plea agreement. Defendant is ordered to report to the United States Probation Department for the preparation of a presentence report. Defendant has the right to allocute before the District Court before imposition of sentence.

Both Parties waived the fourteen (14) day objection period.

SIGNED this 10th day of March, 2022.
